

Mawlana Bhashani Science and Technology University (MBSTU)

Introduction

Mawlana Bhashani Science and Technology University (MBSTU) is a prominent public university in Bangladesh, established in 1999. Located in Santosh, Tangail, the university is named after the charismatic political leader Mawlana Abdul Hamid Khan Bhashani. MBSTU focuses on excellence in science and technology education and research.

Key Facts

- Established: 1999
- Location: Santosh, Tangail, Bangladesh
- Type: Public University
- Motto: "Education for Humanity"

Faculties & Departments

1. Faculty of Science
 - Department of Physics
 - Department of Chemistry
2. Faculty of Engineering
 - Department of Computer Science and Engineering
 - Department of Information and Communication Technology
3. Faculty of Life Science
 - Department of Biotechnology and Genetic Engineering
4. Faculty of Business Studies
 - Department of Business Administration

Campus & Facilities

The university boasts a green and peaceful campus with modern infrastructure. Facilities include advanced laboratories, a well-stocked central library, residential halls, auditorium, Wi-Fi connectivity, and sports complexes.

Mawlana Bhashani Science and Technology University (MBSTU)

Research & Innovation

MBSTU promotes research in diverse scientific fields, engaging students and faculty in national and international collaborations. Research grants and publications are a priority.

Admission Information

MBSTU offers undergraduate and postgraduate programs. Admission is competitive and based on a rigorous entrance examination. The university ensures a transparent and merit-based admission process.

Student Life

Students at MBSTU enjoy vibrant campus life through clubs, cultural events, seminars, sports, and career development activities.

Contact Information

Website: <https://mbstu.ac.bd>

Address: Santosh, Tangail-1902, Bangladesh

Email: info@mbstu.ac.bd

Phone: +88092162100